1st United Credit Union Gives $10,000 for A's Homeruns for Hunger

Official partner of the Oakland Athletics' Homeruns for Hunger program

PLEASANTON, CA (October 1, 2021): For the ninth season, 1st United Credit Union has served as the official sponsor of the Oakland A's Homeruns for Hunger program. For every home run the A's hit during the regular season, 1st United committed to donate $50 to the Alameda County Community Food Bank. This year's donation amounted to $10,000 and will provide 189,000 meals to the local community.

"Our staff enjoyed following the Oakland A's again this year, especially knowing that every home run they hit supports our community," commented Steve Stone, chief executive officer at 1st United Credit Union. "Our hope is that our donation will go a long way in helping to fight hunger in Alameda County."

1st United has donated over $84,000 to the Alameda County Community Food Bank through Homeruns for Hunger. Learn more about how 1st United is supporting their community at 1stunitedcu.org/community.

About 1st United Credit Union
