1st United Credit Union Named a 2021 Bay Area Top Workplace

PLEASANTON, CA (August 25, 2021): For the third consecutive year, 1st United Credit Union has been awarded a Top Workplaces honor by The Bay Area News Group. The list is based on employee feedback gathered through a third-party survey administered by employee engagement technology partner Energage, LLC.

The anonymous survey measures 15 drivers of engaged cultures that are critical to the success of any organization: including alignment, execution, and connection, just to name a few.

“We are so excited to be named a Top Workplace this year,” commented Lynell Fraley, Chief Human Resources Officer at 1st United Credit Union. “Because of the pandemic, 1st United has had to quickly shift the way we do business and find new ways to engage with team members. This award is a gauge to let us know that we are meeting staff needs.”

“During this very challenging time, Top Workplaces has proven to be a beacon of light for organizations, as well as a sign of resiliency and strong business performance,” said Eric Rubino, Energage CEO. “When you give your employees a voice, you come together to navigate challenges and shape your path forward. Top Workplaces draw on real-time insights into what works best for their organization, so they can make informed decisions that have a positive impact on their people and their business.”
