SafeAmerica Credit Union announces 2021 College Scholarship Program

Pleasanton, CA (January 29, 2021) – SafeAmerica Credit Union has announced to its members its annual “call for entries” for their College Scholarship Program which is live from January 1st to March 31st. SafeAmerica prides itself on being their member’s financial partner for any and all needs, education being one of them. Current high school seniors or students currently attending college are encouraged to apply with five winners being determined from those who can successfully write and submit a minimum 600 word essay explaining their future financial goals, community involvement and the impacts of COVID-19.

“We want to continue to make an impact on all our members and their financial needs. Our college scholarship program is a great example of how SafeAmerica can help those pursuing higher education.” shared SafeAmerica Credit Union Vice President of Marketing, Digital Banking and IT, Steven Page.

To apply and for further information, students are encouraged to visit SafeAmerica Credit Union’s website through safeamerica.com/college-scholarship-program/
