Redwood Credit Union Welcomes Dory Haessler
as Vice President/Executive Office Liaison

Haessler to act as primary contact for matters pertaining to the executive office

Santa Rosa, Calif. – Redwood Credit Union (RCU) welcomes Dory Haessler to its executive team as vice president/executive office liaison. In this newly created role, Haessler will provide executive support to RCU president & CEO Brett Martinez, the board of directors, the executive officers, and the senior leadership team.

As the primary point of contact for internal and external communications, Haessler's responsibilities include coordinating executive outreach and external relations, overseeing special projects, and ensuring efficient communications and workflow for the executive team.

A dynamic administrative professional, Haessler is accustomed to working in highly complex, people-oriented positions. She comes to RCU following 13 years of varied leadership positions with Kaiser Permanente, most recently serving as chief of staff to the senior vice president/area manager and as interim public affairs manager. Her expertise with high-level administrative support includes oversight for strategic projects, marketing and advertising, communications, performance management, and special events.

"Dory's skills and background are a perfect match for this key new position," said Brett Martinez, president & CEO of Redwood Credit Union. "She brings a wealth of multi-channel expertise to support our executive team, and I look forward to working together on RCU's executive projects and initiatives."

Prior to working for Kaiser Permanente, Haessler served as public relations assistant at Santa Rosa Junior College, was an Education Abroad Program advisor at University of California, Santa Barbara, and worked as a CalWORKS case manager with the Santa Barbara County Department of Social Services.

Haessler holds a Master of Public Administration degree from the University of San Francisco and bachelor's degrees with honors in psychology and law & society from the University of California, Santa Barbara. She shares RCU's commitment to community and has served on the Santa Rosa Metro Chamber of Commerce as an Advocacy Council member since 2017.
