“It’s a lot of work, but I am excited for this sale every year as it raises so much to benefit the great work of Catholic Charities – work that is making a difference for hundreds of people right here in our communities,” says Karen Church, ELGA CEO. “I am so grateful to all who play a part in making this sale happen and to the vendors who support this event, including the Limmer team from Martin Tents and the food vendors who donate a portion of their sales to Catholic Charities, as well.”

In its sixth year, the tent sale has raised $105,000 to support Catholic Charities. Donations include items from St. John’s Catholic Church in Davison and ELGA Credit Union associates. Catholic Charities and community volunteers spent several days unloading and setting up ahead of the sale. This year, Smokin’ J’s Barbeque and Sugar Shack returned to the delight of many attendees, and Handyman Hot Dogs joined the fun. Each vendor donated 20% of their sales to Catholic Charities.
