ELGA Credit Union Celebrates Grand Opening in Grand Blanc

BURTON, Mich. – ELGA Credit Union (ELGA), along with its board of directors, announces the grand opening and ribbon cutting of its newest branch on Friday, April 23rd at noon. The branch is located at 6019 Grand Pointe Blvd., and is the credit union’s 14th branch location.

“We are excited to open our doors in Grand Blanc to better serve our members,” said Karen Church, ELGA CEO. “We look forward to serving Grand Blanc citizens, businesses, and municipalities. We plan to be a pillar in the community providing essential financial services and being involved in local events.”

The full-service branch is 4,400 square feet and features four state-of-the-art ATM machines offering extended hours for teller service. The credit union is celebrating the newest branch with loan rate specials, and those interested can visit the branch to take advantage of these special rates through May 31st.

Masks are required for those attending.
