

Marshland Credit Union Names Mary Jenrette As President/CEO

Brunswick, GA – June 15, 2021 - After a national search, the Board of Directors of Marshland Credit Union is pleased to announce the selection of Mary Jenrette as the credit union's new President/Chief Executive Officer.

"The Marshland Board of Directors wants to thank outgoing CEO Jeff Holcombe for his many years of leadership. We have grown our membership, adding branches and maintaining strong financials throughout his years of service. We wish Jeff all the best in his retirement as we welcome Mary Jenrette," said Board Chairman Larry Rountree.

"Mary is already well known in our community for her many volunteer and charitable activities. We are confident that her extensive financial industry background and leadership experience will sustain and guide Marshland to a bright future."

Ms. Jenrette brings 30-plus years of commercial, retail and private wealth banking experience to this position. She began her banking career in Charlotte, NC. During those 20 years in Charlotte, she worked for national, regional and community banks holding management positions in the retail, commercial and executive levels for those banks. Mary has lived and worked the last 13 years in Glynn County where she has held various positions in the Private Wealth Management areas of the bank.

"I am honored to have been selected as the next President and CEO of Marshland Credit Union," said Jenrette. "I look forward to working with the Board and Staff as we continue to grow and to strengthen the long legacy they have worked hard to build."

Mary holds a Bachelor of Science in business administration from Meredith College in Raleigh, North Carolina. She is an active community volunteer and has served as Chairperson of the non-profit United Way.
