North Bay Credit Union names 2021 scholarship recipients

SANTA ROSA — “We have a long history of supporting North Bay youth and nothing is more satisfying for us than seeing students thrive,” says Chris Call, North Bay CU CEO.

One of this year’s 2021 Scholarship winners, Francesca Pharo, wrote to the credit union recently “You supported me when I was raising my livestock in 4-H...and now you’ve extended that support through college.” The credit union offers unique financing for 4-H and Future Farmers of America (FFA) student projects.

This year’s scholarship winners are:

- Kaia Stites of Penngrove who is attending Santa Rosa Junior College
- Francesca Pharo of Sonoma is at Colorado State University
- Cameron Taggesell of Sonoma who is headed to University of Oregon

“I know that the last year was a difficult one for students given the challenges of remote learning and cancelled classes,” Call said. “These hardworking students are looking forward to a return to campuses and we’re glad we could help them.”

North Bay CU has $100 million in assets and offers a full range of loans, including mortgages, vehicle loans, home equity loans, agricultural loans and private student loans. The credit union is federally insured by the NCUA and serves everyone who lives, works or worships in Sonoma, Marin, Napa and Solano counties.
