SECU President David Sweiderk Named to Baltimore Business Journal's Power 10 List

BALTIMORE (September 12, 2022) — The Baltimore Business Journal named David Sweiderk, President and CEO of SECU Maryland, to its 2022 listing of Power 10 CEO Honorees.

The Power 10 CEO Honorees is an annual list published by the Baltimore Business Journal of business leaders who have made a substantial impact on their industries, companies and communities, and who are highly regarded for their industry knowledge. This list encompasses 10 C-level executives from the Baltimore area.

"We are thrilled that Dave was recognized by the Baltimore Business Journal for his influence in the industry and in the Baltimore region," said Juancho Bains, Board of Directors Chair. "After he joined SECU in 2018, Dave made a clear commitment to the employees, members and the communities where we serve, leading with intention, heart and a keen strategic eye for the future. Dave's work at SECU and his desire to serve truly make him a power for good, creating a ripple effect of impact not only statewide but also across the industry."

"I am humbled and honored to be recognized by the Baltimore Business Journal as part of the Power 10 CEO Honorees," said Sweiderk. "Through this recognition, I also want to thank the SECU team and our Board of Directors for their dedication and commitment to our members. My success is equally reflective of the incredible dedication of the SECU team to serve our members and positively impact communities across Maryland. We are committed to serving our members, employees and communities with intention, passion and a laser focus."
