GARDEN SAVINGS FEDERAL CREDIT UNION AWARDS THREE SCHOLARSHIPS

Garden Savings Federal Credit Union, headquartered in Parsippany, NJ, is pleased to announce the recipients of the 2024 Book Scholarship. These scholarships recognize students who have excelled academically, been active in their community, and are pursuing career goals. Thanks to a generous donation from Garden Savings FCU member, Kathy Fellows, the credit union was able to award three scholarships instead of the usual two, broadening their impact.

"At Garden Savings FCU, we are dedicated to empowering young minds and investing in the future of the community we serve through our commitment to education," said Garden Savings FCU's Chief Sales Officer, Tom Quigley. "Giving is contagious, and that is evident through our member, Kathy Fellows' heartfelt donation. The Book Scholarship program allows us to recognize the awesome achievements of these outstanding students and help alleviate some of the financial barriers they may face. We are proud to support their journey towards academic success and brighten their futures."

The winners of the 2024 Book Scholarship are Angelina Messana, Haily Errichiello, and Arthur De Lima. Each recipient will be awarded a $500 book scholarship.
