

Financial Literacy Options

YOUTH LESSONS
(17 years and under)

Explaining money is our thing!

Erie Federal Credit Union is committed to helping our youth understand what money is and how to use it responsibly. This reflects our belief in providing financial education at all stages of life. Our team is always ready to provide free, fun and interactive lessons that are customized for your students. The length of the lesson can be altered, depending on your need.

If you don't see your vision in the options below, talk to us, we're flexible!
