PACT BY THE NUMBERS

Lending, savings, community support, and more. Cooperatives unite to create lasting prosperity.

Lending

in loans to members from June 2024 to June 2025.

first mortgage orginiations ($) increased from June 2024 to June 2025.

in commercial loans at credit unions held

midyear, providing capital to local businesses.

equity lending increased credit union home

from June 2024 to June 2025, helping members make repairs and pay for every day expenses.

2025 was the year demand picked back up for loan products.

At WSECU, a blended mortgage is a smart solution for stuck homeowners.

CLICK HERE to learn more.

credit unions tallied

members at mid-year 2025. that's an all-time high.

Members held an average of

June 30.

credit unions paid

in share dividends to members from June 2024 to June 2025.

4.9%

savings balances increased year-over-year at credit unions across the country.

A Set It and Forget It savings program KNOXVILLE savings at Knoxville TVA Employees. CLICK HERE to learn more.

offers a low-barrier entrance to high-yield credit unions operated Credit union branches served

2025, with locations serving branches as of mid-year

as vital community pillars.

members on average across the country. (as of June 30, 2025) online banking.

(as of June 30, 2025)

of credit unions offered international remittance international remittances. (as of June 30, 2025) communities.

In Alaska, Tongass Federal Credit Union

microbranches serve far-flung credit unions increased their employee base by employees from June 2024 to June 2025.

of June 30, 2025.

employees on their rosters as credit unions counted

2,444 credit unions offered financial education as of June 30, 2025.

The Boost Center by Blue FCU partners with local non-profits to promote health, wealth, and happiness in Cheyenne, WY.

CLICK HERE to learn more

Sources: Callahan & Associates