GARDEN SAVINGS FEDERAL CREDIT UNION CELEBRATES SUCCESSFUL GRAND RE-OPENING OF SAYREVILLE BRANCH

Sayreville, NJ – Garden Savings Federal Credit Union, a leading credit union based in Parsippany, New Jersey, is excited to announce the successful grand opening of its Sayreville branch, which took place this past Saturday. The event brought together local community leaders, credit union staff, and valued members, marking a significant milestone for the organization as it continues to strengthen its commitment to serving the community.

The grand opening celebration featured the participation of Sayreville Mayor Kennedy O'Brien, who expressed his support for the credit union's efforts. Mike Powers, CEO and President of Garden Savings FCU, shared his enthusiasm for the revitalized branch, stating, "We are excited to reinvigorate our presence in Sayreville and are thankful for the community's unwavering support. Our goal is to deliver outstanding financial services while engaging in initiatives that genuinely benefit our members. We look forward to growing together with Sayreville and becoming an even more integral part of this vibrant community." The event included refreshments and activities that allowed members to connect with staff and each other.

Also in attendance were Nick Bason, COO of Garden Savings FCU, Ron Litchokowski, Treasurer of the Garden Savings FCU Board of Directors, and Brian Magory, Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors. Each of them emphasized the credit union's ongoing commitment to serving its members with care, integrity, and a focus on their financial well-being. They highlighted the credit union's core values of community engagement and financial empowerment, reiterating that they are dedicated to building lasting relationships with their members.

As a full-service financial institution, Garden Savings FCU remains devoted to providing exceptional service and resources to help its members and the broader community achieve financial stability and success. The credit union continues to explore innovative solutions and programs designed to meet the evolving needs of its members, ensuring that everyone has access to the tools they need for a secure financial future.
