LAS VEGAS, NV. – One Nevada Credit Union was ranked #1 nationally in the Best Credit Unions to Work For in 2025 by American Banker. Only sixty-eight credit unions in the U.S. made this year's list with One Nevada taking home the top spot.

“We’re thrilled that One Nevada is being recognized as the Best Credit Union to Work For in the entire nation,” says Steve O’Donnell, President & CEO of One Nevada Credit Union. “We have an amazing team, and each employee contributes to the positive culture we’ve built here. Together, we’re building financial strength and stability One Nevadan at a time and creating satisfying careers. It’s an incredible feeling!”

The rankings were determined by American Banker and the consulting firm Best Companies Group through two surveys — one of employers and one of employees. The surveys explored workplace policies, practices, philosophy, systems and demographics as well as workers’ own experiences with everything from pay and benefits to company leadership. One of the unique benefits for One Nevada is employees’ 24/7 access to a wellness coach program, including personal coaching.

One Nevada is currently celebrating its 75th anniversary and has 183 full-time employees. Those interested in learning more about the credit union’s career opportunities and generous benefits are encouraged to visit onenevada.org/about/careers.

About One Nevada Credit Union
