LAS VEGAS, NV. – One Nevada Credit Union has been named a 2026 USA TODAY Top Workplaces Winner, joining an elite group of organizations that represent the best in workplace culture nationwide.

This is the sixth year in a row the credit union has been recognized in the annual USA TODAY Top Workplaces award program.

“We have an amazing team at One Nevada, and it’s our people who create the culture that sets us apart,” says Steve O’Donnell, President & CEO of One Nevada Credit Union. “We’ve intentionally built a place where employees feel ownership of the mission and that shows up every day in how they support each other and serve our communities. Recognition like this simply reflects what we already know: our strength starts and ends with our team.”

Top Workplaces awards are determined exclusively by employee feedback. Unlike other awards, there are no qualitative components, such as essays or panels of judges. Organizations that meet or exceed the Top Workplaces benchmark, determined over 19 years of research, are awarded as winners. Competing organizations are grouped by size bands, which may vary by award.

One Nevada has been proudly serving Nevadans for more than 75 years and has 185 full-time employees. Those interested in learning more about the credit union’s career opportunities and generous benefits are encouraged to visit onenevada.org/about/careers.
