Family Trust Federal Credit Union Renames Charitable Foundation

Rock Hill and Greenville, S.C., May 4, 2026 – Family Trust Federal Credit Union (Family Trust) announced today that it has renamed its charitable foundation, formerly known as the Community Partnership Foundation, to the Family Trust Foundation. The name change will align the foundation with the credit union’s brand while continuing its mission of supporting local nonprofits through grants and partnerships that help local communities thrive.

“For years, our foundation has helped strengthen financial education and support meaningful community initiatives,” said Ryan Harvey, president and CEO of Family Trust. “This change brings greater clarity and reinforces the connection to Family Trust while continuing the same important work.”

The Family Trust Foundation will continue supporting local nonprofit organizations through grants and community partnerships across York and Greenville County, and surrounding areas. Eligible charities are encouraged to apply for funding and partnership support during the open application period.
