

SchoolsFirst Federal Credit Union Celebrates School Employee Appreciation Night at May 1 Angels Game

In honor of School Employee Appreciation Month in May, SchoolsFirst FCU recognized school employees at Angels vs. New York Mets game on May 1

Tustin, Calif. (May 22, 2026) – SchoolsFirst Federal Credit Union, the largest credit union in California and the largest serving school employees and their families, sponsored a special night to honor school employees in recognition of School Employee Appreciation Month at the Angels game on May 1, 2026. School employees who attended the game received discounted tickets, an Angels promotional giveaway, a gift from SchoolsFirst FCU and were offered the opportunity to attend along with their family members and friends.

“School Employee Appreciation Month is a meaningful time for us to recognize school employees, and an Angels game is a special way to do that,” said Josh Smith, vice president of school and community relations at SchoolsFirst FCU. “We look forward to this event each year because it brings the community together to celebrate those who make a difference in students’ lives.”
