LAS VEGAS, NV. — One Nevada Credit Union is proud to announce the promotion of Cindy Vela to Vice President of Digital Services and Development. In this new role, Vela will lead the digital service teams in developing and implementing digital strategies for One Nevada’s technological vision.

“Cindy has been with One Nevada for over 27 years,” said Steve O’Donnell, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. “She joined One Nevada as a teller in 1995 and after several promotions, moved into Digital Services and Development in 2013. She’s been instrumental in our digital banking progress and will guide us for many exciting digital transformations in the coming years.”

About One Nevada Credit Union

With over $1.3 billion in assets, One Nevada Credit Union is one of the largest, locally owned, federally insured credit unions in the state. It is also one of the strongest, well-capitalized financial institutions in the country. One Nevada specializes in serving Nevadan’s personal financial needs. One Nevada serves 75,000 members, has 15 branches, and offers 46,000 surcharge-free ATMs through the Allpoint Network. Membership is open to all residents of Washoe, Clark, and Nye counties. One Nevada is federally insured by the National Credit Union Administration, a U.S. Government Agency. For more information, visit <https://www.onenevada.org>.
