ROBERT KILLINS JOINS TRUPARTNER BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Cincinnati, Ohio – TruPartner Credit Union (TPCU) is pleased to announce that Robert Killins has been elected by the membership to its Board of Directors. Killins is the Director of Special Initiatives at Greater Cincinnati Foundation (GCF), where he attracts and manages donors and supports GCF's Private Foundation work. He joined GCF in January 2010 after a 24-year career at The Procter & Gamble Company.

Killins says, "I believe in the credit union's drive to help people. At TruPartner's core is a desire to serve members with integrity while investing in their financial future." Adding Killins to the Board will enable TruPartner to enhance and strengthen the organization's purpose and mission. He will serve as the TPCU Treasurer.

Long-serving board member Barbara Schmitz, Board Secretary, was also re-elected for another three-year term. The remainder of the Board is comprised of Steve Howe, Chair; Kyle Wirthwine, Vice Chair; and Members-at-Large William Herring, Dolores Shaffer, and Henry Washington.
