KEVIN DREYER TO JOIN TRUPARTNER AS CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Cincinnati, Ohio – TruPartner Credit Union (TPCU), one of Cincinnati’s premier Credit Unions, has named Kevin Dreyer as its Chief Financial Officer. For over 85 years, the nearly $200 million-asset credit union has served its community and has over 16,000 members. Dreyer with 20 years of industry experience, most recently as Accounting and Finance Manager for MyUSA Credit Union, stated "I built my career on the idea that all customers deserve innovative financial products, delivered with a personal touch. With TruPartner Credit Union, I have found a place in alignment with my values."

President & CEO Nina Myers added, “After a long extensive search for the role, we are confident we made the right choice to carry on the commitment to our membership. We look forward to Kevin’s contributions and vision to keep the credit union financially sound as we grow.” Consulting firm Humanidei + O’Rourke assisted with the search.

Dreyer is a lifelong resident of Cincinnati. He obtained his undergraduate degree at Miami University and MBA from Xavier University. He is an avid Bengals football and Xavier basketball fan. He currently resides in Wyoming with his wife and their two daughters, along with what he describes as, “an old dog who regularly misbehaves, and a very well-loved cat.” Dreyer will begin his role as CFO on Wednesday, April 5, 2023.
