Ranelle Crosby named director of Real Estate Services

Corvallis, OR – Ranelle Crosby has joined the team at Oregon State Credit Union as director of Real Estate Services. Ranelle is returning to the credit union having previously served as the manager of the Philomath branch from 2006-2012.

Crosby will have primary responsibility for the Real Estate Services department, which provides home loans and home loan servicing for the credit union's members.

"We're thrilled to welcome Ranelle back to the credit union," said Senior Vice President of Financial Services Josh Whisenhunt. "She brings a diversity of job experience combined with a demonstrated commitment to credit union values. I'm excited to see what the future holds for our Real Estate Services department under her leadership."

Crosby has 29 years of financial services experience. Before returning to the credit union, she held positions of increasing responsibility at Amerititle, Malheur Federal Credit Union and Rogue Credit Union.

Crosby said she was happy to be back at Oregon State Credit Union. "It feels like coming home. I can't wait to get to know my team and start working with them to create processes and solutions that will help our members realize their dreams of home ownership."

Crosby earned a bachelor's degree from Northwest Nazarene University in Nampa, Idaho, and attended the Western CUNA Management School.

Oregon State Credit Union is a member-owned, not-for-profit credit union. Membership is open to anyone who lives or works in one of 24 western and central Oregon counties. Additional information about Oregon State Credit Union is available at oregonstatecu.com.
