SafeAmerica Credit Union Announces Their 2023 College Scholarship Winners.

Pleasanton, CA (April 28, 2023) – SafeAmerica Credit Union Interim CEO and Chairman of the Board, Frank Zampella, announced the winners of the credit unions annual College Scholarship Program to the Board of Directors and members present at their 70th Annual Meeting on April 18, 2023. The five recipients were selected based on their essay responses regarding credit union benefits, the difference between a credit union and a bank and the products or services they have utilized to better their financial future.

For over 30 years SafeAmerica has been an advocate for higher education and has awarded $1,000 scholarships to college or college-bound members. Over 25 applications in total were submitted to the credit union's 2023 College Scholarship Program and the five recipients named are:

Gianna S., San Francisco State University Graduate Program

Peter Jacob F., San Francisco State University

Sandro C., University of California Berkeley

Janel D., Los Medanos College

Nicholas A., California State University Long Beach

Before the meeting concluded, Zampella shared "Every year we enjoy receiving our member's scholarship applications. We understand the value of investing in our collective future, which begins with helping the leaders of tomorrow, today."
