SafeAmerica Credit Union Announces Their 2024 College Scholarship Winners.

Pleasanton, CA (April 16, 2024) – SafeAmerica Credit Union CEO, Roger Ballard, announced the winners of the credit unions annual College Scholarship Program to the Board of Directors and members present at their 71st Annual Meeting on April 16, 2024. The five recipients were selected based on their essay responses regarding their future financial needs and how SafeAmerica fits into those plans.

For over 30 years SafeAmerica has been an advocate for higher education and has awarded $1,000 scholarships to college or college-bound members. Thirty applications in total were submitted to the credit union’s 2024 College Scholarship Program and the five winners are:

Alexandra G., Concordia University Irvine

Grace S., Cal State San Marco

Serena C., Los Medonas College

Yuji B., Cal Poly State University

Kyla F., UC Davis

“We’d like to thank everyone who participated this year. We love to learn the level of ambition our participants have towards their futures. We received many inspirational entries, making the selection process difficult. Congratulations everyone!”, concluded Ballard. The SafeAmerica Credit Union College Scholarship Program runs January through March each year. Information can be found on their website at www.safeamerica.com.
