First Harvest Supports Camden Youths
Through The Martha F. Wilson Memorial Scholarship

Deptford, NJ – May 17, 2024 - First Harvest Credit Union has been proudly supporting the Martha F. Wilson Memorial Scholarship since its inception. This year's recipient is Bryanna Mahan, from Dr. Charles E. Brimm Medical Arts who exemplifies her community service, school spirit, and positive character traits through her academic achievements and long-standing community involvement efforts.

"As a member-owned financial institution, the best investment we can make is in education, and the future leaders of our communities. We are proud to have been investing in and supporting Camden's schools and students for over 80 years." stated First Harvest President & CEO, Mike Dinneen.

The Martha F. Wilson Memorial Scholarship program supports the youths of the Camden, NJ area and honors the late president of the Camden City School District, Martha F. Wilson. The scholarship is awarded to a distinguished student within the Camden City school district, who exemplify three crucial traits: community leadership, school spirit, and unwavering character. The scholarship symbolizes the remarkable qualities embodied by the late great Martha F. Wilson.
