eDOC and VisiFI Launch an e-Sign Collaboration

MIDDLEBURY, VT– May 14, 2024

eDOC Innovations, a Credit Union Service Organization (CUSO) specializing in mobile enterprise digital transaction management, and VisiFI, an API-first core solution and digital banking provider have collaborated to build multiple e-Sign integration points for their mutual credit union customers. The end-to-end integration involves VisiFI’s Digital Account Opening, Direct Lending platforms as well as i-POWER® core.

“We greatly value VisiFI’s unwavering dedication to delivering seamless integrated solutions to all their customers. These integrations will harness the collective resources of our respective organizations, culminating in a smooth and efficient workflow that significantly enhances day-to-day transactions for credit union staff and members,” said Mark Fierro, CEO of eDOC.

“VisiFI has a rich ecosystem of best-in-class technology providers geared to accelerate our customers’ growth and deliver personalized services. Our new integration of eDOCSignature® not only offers an affordable eSignature solution, the seamless integration across VisiFI products, it’s internal document sharing capabilities, unlimited customization options, tablet compatibility for signing, and document upload features, supports our mission to drive operational efficiencies and facilitate unparalleled personalized experiences,” said Jami Jennings Vice President Digital Product Management & Member Experience.

Joseph Lao, VP of Sales and Market Development, enthusiastically added, “Collaborating with Jami Jennings and her exceptional team has been a true pleasure. We wholeheartedly celebrate this pivotal phase in our shared vision and eagerly anticipate our collaboration’s exciting opportunities.”
