Homefield Credit Union Signs Renewal Agreement with Synergent

Synergent will deliver hosted Jack Henry Symitar core processing, integrated debit card services, statement processing, and additional solutions to Homefield Credit Union

(WESTBROOK, ME) – Synergent® is pleased to announce Homefield Credit Union has signed a ten-year renewal agreement with Synergent for hosted Jack Henry™ Symitar® core processing, as well as five-year renewal agreements for Banno Digital Platform™, Opening Act™, and iPay Consumer Bill Pay.

“I am pleased to announce that Homefield Credit Union has made the decision to maintain its relationship with Synergent. Homefield CU remains keenly aware of the strong competition we face within the communities we serve,” shared Karl Moisan, President and CEO of Homefield Credit Union. “We are confident that this ongoing partnership will afford us the continued opportunity to offer an impressive range of products and services needed to meet the financial needs of our members.”

Homefield Credit Union has also signed a five-year renewal for numerous additional services provided by Synergent, including Integrated Debit Card Services, Check Processing, Statement Processing, and WyCom Laser Check Printing. The credit union signed a two-year renewal for Mobile Deposit Capture.

“We are ecstatic that Homefield Credit Union has decided to renew their partnership with us and look forward to advancing our work together,” said Randy Stolp, President of Synergent. “The Synergent team is eager to continue delivering essential solutions to Homefield, along with our signature service and support.”

Homefield Credit Union, headquartered in North Grafton, Massachusetts, has over 7,000 members and over $179 million in assets. Its field of membership includes individuals who live, work, or attend school in Worcester and Middlesex counties.
