SECU Joins North Carolina Governor's Office for School Supply Drive to Benefit Teachers and Students
275 SECU branches throughout the state serving as collections sites for supplies

RALEIGH, N.C. – State Employees' Credit Union (SECU) is pleased to announce its support for the 2024 Governor's School Supply Drive to help teachers and students get the items they need for the upcoming school year. In its sixth year to provide collection sites for the event, SECU is accepting donations at its statewide network of 275 branches now through August 9.

Wish list items include paper of all types, pencils and pens, crayons and markers, dry erase markers, USB flash drives, spiral notebooks, sanitizing wipes, and tissues. The collected supplies will be distributed to public schools in the county received.

"Our branch presence in all 100 counties makes this initiative a natural fit for the Credit Union, and we are so pleased to continue our support for North Carolina educators and students by serving as statewide collection sites for this campaign," said SECU President and CEO Leigh Brady. "We welcome everyone to stop by any of our branches to drop off their donated school supply items. Please join us in making this our best year yet."
