Redwood Credit Union Welcomes Susanne Miller as Senior Vice President of Accounting and Finance

Napa, Calif. – Susanne Miller has been hired as the new senior vice president over Accounting and Finance for Redwood Credit Union. In her new role, Miller will oversee financial planning and analysis, business finance support, and the accounting and financial reporting teams.

Miller has over thirty years of capital and financial markets industry experience. Prior to joining RCU, she served in multiple global senior executive business and finance positions at Citigroup, Wells Fargo and Barclays Bank. She also held roles at HSBC, American Express, and JP Morgan, and has extensive consulting and audit experience with Arthur Andersen LLP.

"Susanne's deep understanding of the business and finance industry is an asset to our member-focused strategies," says Kristen Mahlmann, RCU's Chief Financial Officer. "We're thrilled to have her on our senior leadership team."

A resident of San Francisco, Miller earned a Bachelor of Science in economics and a Master of Accountancy Science from the University of Illinois and is an active Certified Public Accountant.
