Alogent and CheckAlt Partner to Deliver Complete Receivables Solution for Financial Institutions

New partnership enhances Alogent's receivables offering by integrating CheckAlt's lockbox and electronic lockbox (Catch!) solutions, delivering a complete, end-to-end payment solution.

Valley Cottage, NY, and Peachtree Corners, GA, October 16, 2024 - CheckAlt, a leading provider of payment management solutions, announced a strategic partnership with Alogent, a leading global provider of software solutions for the banking and financial services market. This collaboration extends Alogent's receivables offering by integrating CheckAlt's comprehensive lockbox solution, which includes both traditional check processing and the innovative Catch! electronic lockbox, into Alogent's item processing platforms.

As banks and credit unions work to remain competitive, the need for digital transformation and technology modernization is growing. This complete digital-first payments and receivables management solution enables financial institutions to offer businesses a seamless way to manage both paper and electronic remittances through a single platform, eliminating manual check handling, reducing the risk of fraud, and improving cash flow visibility for business clients.

"We are thrilled to partner with Alogent to bring our lockbox and Catch! solutions to their hundreds of financial institution clients," said Shai Stern, CEO of CheckAlt. "This partnership extends Alogent's item processing capabilities, allowing businesses to digitize receivables, eliminate manual processes, and improve payment security. This ultimately cuts the risk of check fraud and brings much needed automation to banks and credit unions."

"In today's technology-driven landscape, our collaboration with CheckAlt redefines how banks and credit unions engage with their business account holders, enabling a more efficient and secure payment experience," said Dede Wakefield, CEO of Alogent. "By addressing the evolving needs of our financial institution clients and the changing demands of their business customers and members, we're optimizing receivables management with a solution that seamlessly scales to support their strategic growth goals."
