ARLINGTON, VIRGINIA – The National Association of State Credit Union Supervisors (NASCUS) will convene its 59th annual meeting, the State System Summit (S3), from October 21-23, 2024, at the Broadmoor in Colorado Springs, CO. This premier event offers a distinctive opportunity for state regulators and credit union system stakeholders to engage over a multi-day platform.

The NASCUS Summit is a unique platform for dialogue, innovative problem-solving, and collaboration across the credit union landscape. It's a chance for industry leaders to come together and shape the future of our industry. Sessions include:

- A panel discussion on Perspectives on the Future with Renée Sattiewhite, African-American Credit Union Coalition President and CEO; Troy Stang, GoWest Credit Union Association President and CEO; Melanie Hall, Montana Division of Banking and Financial Institutions Commissioner; and Anthony Hernandez, Defense Credit Union Council President and CEO
- Managing a Multi-Generational Workforce, Membership, and Movement with Jill Nowacki, Humanidei President and CEO
- Regulating Artificial Intelligence: Securing Today's Banks for Tomorrow's Challenges with Alec Crawford, Artificial Intelligence Risk, Inc. Founder and CEO
- Economic & Business Climate discussion with Dr. Roger Tutterow, Professor and Henssler Financial Endowed Chair; Department of Economics, Finance and Quantitative Analysis, Kennesaw State University
- NACUSO's Big Idea winner Saisi Peter, Co-founder of Casap, and more

Throughout numerous educational sessions and networking events, participants will develop connections and play a vital role in shaping the direction of the credit union movement in the future. Your participation is not just about learning but about contributing to the future of our industry.

We want to extend our heartfelt thanks to our sponsors for their generous support: BECU, TruStage, Zest AI, PARC Street Partners, Corporate Central Credit Union, and American Share

Insurance. Their support is not just financial, but a key part of making this event a success and shaping the future of the credit union system. We couldn't do it without them.

“The State System Summit is a bit of a rarity in the system. It brings together stakeholders from across the system, including most state regulatory agencies, credit unions from across the country, leagues, and other system stakeholders. Everyone comes together to exchange ideas and collaborate on the issues and challenges we all deal with,” commented Brian Knight, NASCUS President and CEO.

###

NASCUS is the professional association of the nation’s 46 state and territorial credit union regulatory agencies that charter and supervise 1,797 state credit unions. Our mission is to forge a vibrant dual charter system by promoting a relevant, growth-oriented, and healthy state charter option.

Our membership includes state regulatory agencies, state-chartered and federally-chartered credit unions, and other important stakeholders in the state system. State-chartered credit unions hold half the $2.319 trillion assets in the credit union system and are proud to represent nearly half the more than 142.3 million credit union members.
