Coastal Credit Union Promotes Marin Sawyer to VP of Deposit Operations

RALEIGH, N.C. (October 30, 2024) – Coastal Credit Union has promoted Marin Sawyer to VP of Deposit Operations. In her role, Sawyer will develop and execute Coastal's deposit and payment services strategies in support of the credit union's overall strategic plan. She will lead deposit and payment services process improvement, direct service delivery operations, build highly competent customer service teams, and ensure compliance throughout her service areas.

Sawyer most recently served as the credit union's Application Automation Manager. In her 24-year tenure with Coastal, she has experience in deposit operations, IT, project management, and business transformation. Her expertise includes process optimization, project management, product development, systems implementation and integration, and automation. Sawyer holds a BA in finance from Ball State University, as well as several certifications.
