FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

USSFCU Recognized Nationally as a 2025 USA Today Top Workplace

Alexandria, VA – March 27, 2025 - The United States Senate Federal Credit Union (USSFCU) is proud to announce that it has once again been named a 2025 USA Today Top Workplace, a national recognition that celebrates organizations with exceptional workplace cultures.

This prestigious honor is based entirely on feedback from USSFCU employees who participated in a confidential, research-backed employee engagement survey conducted by Energage, a leading firm in workplace culture research. The survey measured several key culture drivers including alignment, execution, connection, and employee well-being—areas where USSFCU continues to excel.

“We are honored to receive this national recognition,” said Timothy L. Anderson, President & CEO of USSFCU. “This award is a reflection of our people—who show up every day with a passion for service and a shared commitment to our members and each other. Our culture is grounded in purpose and mutual respect, and I'm incredibly proud of the workplace we've built together."

As part of this year's recognition, USSFCU also received a USA Today Top Workplaces Culture Excellence Award for Inclusion and Belonging, celebrating the organization's dedication to creating a workplace where all team members feel welcomed, respected, and empowered to be themselves.

This latest honor adds to USSFCU's growing list of accolades, including the 2024 Top Workplaces USA Today Award, The Washington Post Top Workplace Award, and multiple Culture of Excellence distinctions for Work-Life Flexibility, Remote Work, and performance in the Financial Services sector.
