FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASEIllinois Credit Union League Welcomes Two New Employees to Support Credit Unions

NAPERVILLE, IL. April 16, 2025 – The Illinois Credit Union League (ICUL) is pleased to announce the addition of two experienced professionals who will play key roles in supporting Illinois credit unions. Brian O'Kelly has joined the league as a Regional Director, and Roberta Devorsky will serve as a Compliance Analyst.

Brian O'Kelly brings 16 years of credit union experience across lending, operations, finance, and member experience. His passion for credit unions and family history in the industry will be a significant asset. As Regional Director, he will support Illinois credit unions through in-person and virtual engagement—delivering solutions, connecting them to key resources, and helping them achieve their goals.

Roberta Devorsky joins ICUL with over 20 years of compliance experience from the securities industry, including direct client assistance and over a decade in the broker-dealer community with NYSE and NASD firms. She is eager to apply her expertise to the credit union industry and support ICUL members. As a Compliance Analyst, she will assist in equipping credit unions with the information needed to understand relevant rules and regulations.

“We are delighted to welcome both Brian and Roberta to the Illinois Credit Union League,” said Libby Calderone, President/CEO of the Illinois Credit Union League. “Brian’s extensive and varied experience within the credit union movement, coupled with Roberta’s deep compliance background, will significantly strengthen our ability to provide comprehensive support and guidance to our member credit unions as they navigate the evolving financial landscape.”
