Alogent Supports Lead Bank's Drive for Innovation with Unify Platform

Peachtree Corners, GA, June 18, 2025 – Alogent (@Alogent-Corp), a global software leader in the banking and financial services market, is proud to announce that Lead Bank has selected Unify to power in-branch teller capture and remote deposit capture across its mobile and ATM/ITM channels. This technology decision reflects Lead Bank's ongoing commitment to innovation and delivering seamless, customer-first experiences.

"Lead's innovative mindset and forward momentum reflect the dynamic shifts happening across the banking market," said Ashish Bhatia, VP Product Management, Alogent. "As institutions adapt to changing demands, we're proud to provide software solutions that enable real-time agility, modern user experiences, and smarter operations at every touchpoint."

Based in Kansas City, MO, Lead Bank is a recognized leader in Banking-as-a-Service (BaaS), with more than half its business supporting fintechs and digital asset companies.

With Unify, Lead Bank will streamline deposit capture across multiple channels, reduce operational complexity, and continue to meet the needs of its fast-growing, digitally focused account holder base.
