EECU Wins in Three Categories of 2025 Best of Central California Awards

Fresno, CA – June 18, 2025 – Educational Employees Credit Union (EECU) is proud to announce its recognition in three prestigious categories of The Fresno Bee's 2025 Best of Central California People's Choice Awards.

These honors reflect EECU's ongoing commitment to excellence, service, and community impact that are central to its mission as a not-for-profit credit union putting its members first.

For the 19th consecutive year, EECU has been named Best Credit Union, a testament to its long history building trust, support, and partnerships with its members across the 12 Central California and Central Coast counties it serves.

In addition to this longstanding recognition, EECU also received the Gold Award for Best Auto Loans and the Silver Award for Best Place to Work.

"We're incredibly honored to be recognized by our community once again," said Elizabeth J. Dooley, EECU president and CEO. "To be named Best Credit Union for 19 years running is a direct reflection of our members' loyalty and the dedication of our team."

The Best of Central California awards are determined entirely by public vote, underscoring the community's ongoing support and appreciation for EECU's commitment to providing its members with exceptional service and affordable financial products.

EECU thanks its members, employees, and the greater Central California community for this recognition and looks forward to continuing its legacy of trusted service and innovation.
