FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Alogent Celebrated as a 2025 Metro Atlanta Top Workplace for Second Consecutive Year

Peachtree Corners, GA, August 18, 2025 – Alogent \(@Alogent-Corp\), a global software leader in the banking and financial services market, is proud to announce its recognition as a 2025 Top Workplaces winner by the Atlanta Journal-Constitution. This marks the second consecutive year Alogent has received this distinction, reflecting its unwavering commitment to cultivating a workplace that champions inclusivity, innovation, and employee well-being.

“This continued recognition is a reflection of our team’s dedication and the values we uphold across the organization,” said Dede Wakefield, CEO of Alogent. “We strive to maintain a culture where respect, collaboration, and personal development are at the forefront, and it’s incredibly rewarding to see that commitment acknowledged by our employees.”

The Top Workplaces recognition is based exclusively on insights shared by employees through an anonymous survey administered by Energage LLC, a trusted authority in workplace culture and employee engagement. The survey explores various aspects of the employee experience, including organizational support, professional development opportunities, and the ability to make meaningful contributions.

“Earning a Top Workplaces award is a badge of honor for companies, especially because it comes authentically from their employees,” said Eric Rubino, Energage CEO. “That’s something to be proud of. In today’s market, leaders must ensure they’re allowing employees to have a voice and be heard. That’s paramount. Top Workplaces do this, and it pays dividends.”

At Alogent, fostering a workplace where individuals feel empowered, supported, and inspired remains a top priority. This latest honor reinforces the company’s ongoing commitment to building a culture that values growth, collaboration, and inclusion.
